The following information is provided pursuant to the requirements of NRS 233B.0603:

1. Statement of need for and purpose of the regulation:

The Nevada Board of Massage Therapy (“Board”) has proposed changes to the Nevada Administrative Code (“NAC”) Chapter 640C to set forth hearing provisions for establishment certificate holders, update licensing fees, establish procedure for issuing a temporary license, defining mobile massage, and updating continuing education requirements.

2. This regulation is not a temporary regulation.

3. This is a permanent regulation, and a copy of the regulation may be obtained by contacting Elisabeth Barnard at ebarnard@lmt.nv.gov or (775) 687-9951.

4. Estimated economic effects on businesses:

Adverse effects: There are no adverse effects of this regulation on the businesses it regulates or on the public.

Beneficial effects: The changes will establish a process pursuant to which the Board can discipline holders of establishment certificates, reduces the fees for a temporary license, creates clarity in continuing education requirements.

Immediate effects: The direct effects are to establish clear guidance on acceptable practices and creates clear procedures for disciplining holders of establishment certificates.

Long-term effects: Licensees and their businesses may see indirect effects improved public confidence and expectations.

5. Statement of methods used to determine impact on small business)

The Board made a concerted effort to determine whether the regulation is likely to “[i]mpose a direct and significant economic burden upon a small business” or “[d]irectly restrict the formation, operation or expansion of a small business.” NRS 233B.0608(1). The Board concluded the regulation would not cause these negative impacts or effects, after consultation with the licensing community and massage, reflexology and structural integration establishments and other potentially affected parties, professional associations for massage, reflexology and structural integration and internal staff.

6. There are no costs to the Board for implementation of this regulation.

7. The proposed regulations do not overlap or duplicate any regulation of other state or local governmental entities. The regulations, even after these proposed regulation changes are adopted, will not overlap and duplicate parts of a federal regulation. The Board is not aware of any proposed provisions which are more stringent than a federal regulation that regulates the same activity.

8. This regulation is not required pursuant to a federal law.
9. This regulation does not contain any provisions which are more stringent than a federal regulation that regulates the same activity.
10. This regulation does impose a fee.
11. Interested persons may provide their views regarding the regulation at the following locations or by submitted written comments to Elisabeth Barnard at ebarnard@lmt.nv.gov or (775) 687-9951.

Persons wishing to comment upon the proposed action of the Board may appear at the scheduled public hearing or may address their comments, data, views or arguments, in written form, to Elisabeth Barnard at ebarnard@lmt.nv.gov or (775) 687-9951. Written submissions must be received by the Board on or before September 3, 2026. If no person who is directly affected by the proposed action appears to request time to make an oral presentation, the Board may proceed immediately to act upon any written submissions.

A copy of this notice and the regulation (LCB File No R137-26) to be adopted will be on file at the State Library, 100 Stewart Street, Carson City, Nevada, for inspection by members of the public during business hours. Additional copies of the notice and the regulation will be available at the Board's Offices: 1755 E. Plumb Lane, Suite 252, Reno, Nevada 89502, for inspection and copying by members of the public during business hours. This notice and the text of the proposed regulation (LCB File No. R137-26) are also available in the State of Nevada Register of Administrative Regulations, which is prepared and published monthly by the Legislative Counsel Bureau pursuant to NRS 233B.0653, and on the Internet at <http://www.leg.state.us/>. Copies of this notice and the proposed regulation also will be mailed to members of the public at no charge upon request.

Upon adoption of any regulation, the agency, if requested to do so by an interested person, either before adoption or within 30 days thereafter, shall issue a concise statement of the principal reasons for and against its adoption and incorporate therein its reason for overruling the consideration urged against its adoption.
